HARRY DALTON
EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT - GENERAL MANAGER

In the seven years Harry Dalton has been Executive Vice President-General Manager, the Milwaukee Brewers have become one of the top organizations in the business.

On the field, his record speaks for itself. Since Brewer President & Chief Executive Officer Allan H. (Bud) Selig hired Dalton on November 20, 1977, the Brewers have compiled the third best record in all of baseball - 518-400, a .564 winning mark over seven seasons. Only the Baltimore Orioles (543-368, .596) and New York Yankees (521-395, .569) - both also members of the rugged Eastern Division of the American League - have a better winning percentage than the Brewers in that period. All this comes from a club that never finished better than ten games UNDER .500 before Dalton came aboard.

The Brewer's top performance to date under Dalton came in 1982, winning the American League Pennant and taking the St. Louis Cardinals to the seventh game of the World Series before losing. Milwaukee also had the best record in baseball that season (95-67, .586), as Dalton earned the Sporting News Major League Executive of the Year Award for the second time (he first earned the honor in 1970 with the Orioles).

Besides bringing the Fall Classic back to Milwaukee for the first time in 24 years, Dalton has built one of baseball's most exciting teams in Milwaukee. His trades this winter added the names of Jim Sundberg, a Gold Glove catcher, and Bobby Clark, a promising outfielder, to a list that includes Ted Simmons, Ben Oglivie, Rollie Fingers, Pete Vuckovich, Don Sutton, Pete Ladd and Rick Manning.

Dalton's success as a master tradesman in Milwaukee is no surprise when one looks at his past record. In eighteen years as general manager at Baltimore, California and Milwaukee, his trades and free agent signings have included a brilliant array of star players, including Frank Robinson, Mike Cueller, Pat Dobson, Nolan Ryan, Bobby Bonds and Bill Singer, among others. Dalton's acquisitions over the years have strung together a magnificent list of individual achievements, including three Cy Young Awards, three MVP awards, eight 20-victory seasons, five home run championships and Nolan Ryan's all-time major league record of five no-hitters.

Dalton's hiring of Manager Rene Lachemann should also prove fruitful based on his past managerial selections. Earl Weaver with the Orioles became a legend after Dalton hired him as Baltimore's field boss, while in Milwaukee George Bamberger turned the Brewers around during his regime and Bob (Buck) Rodgers and Harvey Kuenn each took their squads to post-season play.

Dalton's philosophy - no one is more important than the entire organization - is reflected in the front office as well as the team on the field. He is quick to give his entire staff credit for the organization's success.

Dalton, who spent six seasons as Executive Vice President & General Manager with the Angels before joining Milwaukee, began his career with Baltimore in 1953. He progressed quickly, moving from Assistant Farm Director to Vice President of Player Personnel in his 18 years with the O's. Baltimore won four pennants (1966, '69, '70 & '71) and two world championships (1966 & 1970) with Dalton at the helm, as the Orioles compiled a .603 winning percentage under his leadership.

A 1950 graduate of Amherst College, Dalton served as a combat press officer in Japan and Korea before joining the Orioles. He and his wife, the former Pat Booker, have three daughters. Kim, 21, is a senior at the University of Arizona. Cindy, 18, is in her freshman year at the University of Richmond, and Debbie, 16, is a high school junior.

The Milwaukee Brewers logo is beginning its 7th year of existence, following its selection from over 2,000 entries in a month-long contest that was open to the public, both amateur and professional, in October and November of 77. Tom Meindel, an Art History student at the University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire, designed the logo and earned the $2,000 first prize. The logo combines the lower case letters "m" and "b", the club's initials, to form a baseball mitt.

With Robin Yount earning the American League Most Valuable Player Award, and Pete Vuckovich earning the A.L. Cy Young Award in 1982, coupled with Rollie Fingers' sweep of the honors in 1981, it marked the first time an A.L. club won both awards in back-to-back seasons. The only other team to accomplish that was the National League Los Angeles Dodgers in 1962 and '63 when Sandy Koufax, Don Drysdale and Maury Wills earned the honors.

AMERICAN LEAGUE EASTERN DIVISION SERIES
MILWAUKEE vs NEW YORK

For the first time in major league history, a divisional playoff series was established because of the split season. In the American League Eastern Division, New York, winners of the first half, confronted MILWAUKEE, winners of the second half. It was the 34th time the Yankees participated in post season action while it marked the first appearance in playoff competition for the Brewers. New York took the best of five series, three-games-to-two and swept three games from Oakland to earn the American League Championship. The Yankees lost to the National League Los Angeles Dodgers four-games-to-two in the 78th World Series.

AMERICAN LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES
MILWAUKEE vs CALIFORNIA

In a dramatic and thrilling American League Championship Series, Milwaukee set a precedent in LCS play. The Brewers overcame a 0-2 deficit against California to win their first American League pennant. The Angels captured the first two games played in Anaheim and the Brewers rallied at County Stadium sweeping three straight games. The comeback performance by Milwaukee was a first in LCS history.

1982
WORLD SERIES
MILWAUKEE vs ST. LOUIS

It was tabbed the Suds Series, and the 79th World Series between Milwaukee and St. Louis truly foamed over with exciting action as it went the limit. The Series was tied three times and each club held the advantage twice in the see-saw battle. The Cardinals won their ninth World Championship by downing the Brewers four-games-to-three, including winning the final two games in St. Louis. It was St. Louis' 13th trip to the World Series and Milwaukee's first trip to the October Classic.

BREWER FARM SYSTEM FIRST RUNNERUP IN TOPPS ORGANIZATION OF THE YEAR — 1983

The Milwaukee Brewers minor league system finished second to the New York Mets' organization in Topps Chewing Gum's voting for the Organization of the Year Award in 1983.

BREWER RADIO & TELEVISION ANNOUNCERS

BOB UECKER, now in his fifth year as the Milwaukee Brewers number one radio announcer and his 13th season broadcasting Brewer baseball, is considered one of the game's best play-by-play broadcasters. This year, Bob will also swing over to the Brewers new SportsVue Cable Network, a pay-TV service. A colorful character, Bob recently authored a book entitled, Catcher in the Wry, a humorous look back at his playing days as a catcher with the Braves, Cardinals and Phillies. Bob, who was named the Wisconsin Sportscaster of the Year for 1982, has gained national attention for his work on ABC's Monday Night Baseball and the Superstars Show. Bob has also worked for the networks covering both League Championship and World Series action. In addition, he has made several guest appearances as "Mr. Baseball" on NBC's The Tonight Show, as well as, appearances on the David Letterman Show and the Midnight Special. Bob and his wife Judy, make their home in the Milwaukee area.

MIKE HEGAN, a popular figure in the Milwaukee area, is starting his sixth year in the booth. A former first baseman with the Brewers, A's and Yankees, Mike was an original Seattle Pilot. Upon retiring as an active player, Mike pursued a career in television, working as a sportscaster at a local TV station. He began his affiliation with the Brewers in 1978, spending three years as a color commentator. After a short absence, he returned to the booth in 1982. He will be the color commentator on WVTV-Channel 18 along with Steve Shannon and will also work with Shannon and Uecker on the SportsVue Cable Network. Mike, his wife Nancy and two sons, Shawn and J.J., live in the Milwaukee area.

STEVE SHANNON is in his fourth season as a Brewer television announcer. A veteran play-by-play man, Steve will handle televised games both on WVTV-Channel 18 as well as the new SportsVue Cable Network. Steve has worked with the California Angels and Kansas City Royals broadcast teams in addition to special assignments for the USA Cable Network prior to joining the Brewers. A multi-talented announcer, Steve has handled UCLA baseketball and football as well as Big Eight Conference basketball games. He has worked minor league baseball for 10 years and professional football and basketball for the Denver Broncos and Nuggets of the NFL and NBA, respectively. A midwesterner, Steve added a new assignment this past winter doing play-by-play basketball for Bradley University.

PAT HUGHES, is the newest member of the Brewer broadcast team. Pat will team up with Bob Uecker on WTMJ-Radio this season after spending the past year as a television announcer for the Minnesota Twins on Spectrum Sports, a subscription cable station. This past winter, Pat handled the pre-game, between periods and post-game shows for the Minnesota North Stars of the National Hockey League for Spectrum. Hughes also has handled play-by-play for the Columbus Clippers of the International League, California League baseball, the San Jose Missions of the Pacific Coast League and Pacific Ten Conference baseball. Pat also was the sports director of Warner Amex Cube in Columbus, Ohio and for Gill Cable (The Sports Channel) in San Jose, California. He also worked for ESPN and USA Cable Networks. A bachelor, he is a native of Tucson, Arizona and was raised in San Jose.

HITTING FOR THE CYCLE

Only two Milwaukee Brewers have ever hit for the cycle in a game, with Mike Hegan doing it back in 1976 and Charlie Moore accomplishing the feat in 1980. Hegan managed to hit a double, homer and a triple off Detroit's Mark "The Bird" Fidrych on September 3, 1976 in Tiger Stadium and completed the task by hitting a single off Bill Laxton. He finished the day with four hits in five at bats including a walk, scoring twice and driving in six runs. Moore hit for the cycle on October 1, 1980 at California, singling off Ed Halicki, homering off Chris Knapp, tripling off Dave Schuler and finally doubling off Mark Clear. He went four-for-five in the game, with three runs scored and three RBI, adding two stolen bases, capping his best single game performance in his career.

PAY-TV INFORMATION
SPORTSVUE CABLE NETWORK

For the first time, Milwaukee Brewer games will be offered to pay-cable systems throughout Wisconsin and the Midwest in 1984. The SportsVue Cable Network is the brain child of Brewer President-Chief Executive Officer Allan H. (Bud) Selig and Milwaukee Bucks Owner Jim Fitzgerald. SportsVue plans to carry 200 live sports events this year, including 67 Brewer games. In addition to exclusive cable Brewer game coverage, SportsVue will have exclusive cable coverage of Bucks, Wisconsin Badgers football, basketball and hockey and Marquette Warriors basketball. Plus, SportsVue plans to carry other National Basketball Association games, American League baseball games and National Hockey League games. The SportsVue Cable Network will make its pay-TV debut on April 3, 1984 in conjunction with the start of the 1984 Brewer baseball season.
